

---

Mechanical Designer

Skills/Experience

- 5 years or more experience with HVAC design of commercial core and shell and tenant improvement projects
- Interface with architects, vendors, building department officials, contractors, and fellow designers/engineers on a daily basis. This includes attending project coordination and construction meetings and job site visits
- Design mechanical systems including: heating, cooling, air distribution, air conditioning, ventilation, etc.
- Title 24 knowledge
- Trace load calculations
- To be part of a service oriented organization priding itself on coordination and technical excellence

Qualifications

- AutoCAD Proficiency
- College degree is preferred but not required
- EIT Certificate is preferred but not required
- PE license is preferred but not required

What We Offer

- Los Angeles based MEP engineering leaders in the Southern California area
- Above market pay
- Great healthcare benefits and retirement plan
- Opportunity to work on a variety of small to large and exciting projects with a dynamic team
- Experienced and industry leading mentorship

Contact Terrie Huberman to schedule an appointment

thuberman@arceng.net

(818) 508-6300