

---

Senior Mechanical Engineer

Skills/Experience

- Over 15 years experience with HVAC design of commercial core and shell, tenant improvements, master plan, and infrastructure projects
- Interface with clients, architects, vendors, building department officials, contractors and fellow engineers on a daily basis. This includes attending project coordination, construction and owner meetings and job site visits
- Design mechanical systems including: central plants, controls, heating, cooling, air distribution, air conditioning, ventilation, etc.
- Select water side, air side, and controls equipment for building mechanical system
- Report writing
- Strong code knowledge
- Title 24 knowledge
- Trace load calculations
- Lead a team of designers/engineers
- General knowledge of plumbing systems
- To be a part of service oriented organization priding itself on coordination and technical experience

Qualifications

- Bachelor's Degree in Mechanical Engineering is required
- PE License required
- AutoCAD knowledge

What We Offer

- Los Angeles based MEP engineering leaders in the Southern California area
- Above market pay
- Great healthcare benefits and retirement plan
- Opportunity to work on a variety of small to large and exciting projects with a dynamic team
- Experienced and industry leading mentorship

Contact Terrie Huberman to schedule an appointment

thuberman@arceng.net

(818) 508-6300